Miss Zoe Baker, who has been the charming guest of Miss Mamie Tharp for the past month, returned to her home at Headland, Ala., Friday. While here, Miss Baker formed many friends who regret very much to see her leave.

Town Topics.

Saturday was Confederate Veterans day, hence a good number of Veterans were in town.

The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thad Hudson last week and left them a baby girl. We are glad to note that the mother and little lady are getting along nicely.

The party who stole Griffin's horse and buggy was caught at Hartford, Ala., brought back, tried and remanded to jail. He implicates other parties, which will be investigated.

Our old friend S. M. Robertson was in to see us a few days back, and left us a few watermelons, to remind us that he still knows how to grow the delicious fruit. Please accept our thanks for same, Bro. Robertson.

From the Vernon News, we learn of the death of Mr. F. P. Bruce, of Vernon. We, together with his host of friends, tender our sympathy to the bereaved family. Mr. Bruce was well liked and respected by all who knew him.

We regret to note the sad occurrence which happened here Wednesday eve, of Mr. Doug Barfield killing himself. We understand that he has been very much disturbed in his mind since the murder of his brother, so we suppose that was the cause of the rash act. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved family.
